¡Season One . . . and beyond!

101 - Fire On The Dance Floor - Chicks & Salsa kicks off with a spicy introduction to our cast, where fun and margarita's with old friends meet fresh faces, and a challenge on the dance floor puts everybody in their ranks revealing who the Reina Latina really is!

102 - Latin Nights - Manicures, business meetings, picking up the dry-cleaning and attending to family is all in a days work. But don't be fooled by these domestic Latinas, when the sun goes down the music goes up and the party begins!

103 - Love On the Rocks - When the ring goes on, the gloves come off? Or so we thought. Dating, marriage and misunderstandings are all a part of life, thankfully these women have each other to cha cha cha through their rough patches!

104 - I Object! - Dancing through life is fun, until you wake up to find yourself unemployed and in danger of losing your home. The cast bonds together to help their friend fight back.

105 - Dose of Reali-TEA - In honor of Mother's Day, the Chicks gather their moms for a special tea party "on-the-record" and the plot thickens when the moms swap embarrassing childhood stories of their daughters.

106 - Let's Get Loud - Friday night is girls night out, but when one of our sassy salsa sirens enjoys one margarita too many, the evening takes a turn in the wrong direction. Will she be kicked out of the club for good, or will her compadres save the day?

107 - Salsa and Spice Mi Abuelita is Nice! - Every Latina girl finds time to spend with her abuela! These Chicks gain respect for culture and age-old traditions, their flair and passion for dance, and spicy temperaments from their grandmothers of course! Unfortunately, abuelas also have a secret recipe for stirring the pot!

108 - Opposites Attract - Three of our Latina ladies found love in all the "White" places, while our resident "chica blanca" is only interested in dating passionate Latin men! We explore racial stereotypes in this cultural based episode.

109 - Designing Women - The only thing our Chicks love more than food and dance is S-H-O-P-P-I-N-G! Choosing your dress is as important as choosing your mate when it comes to Salsa on the shiny stage! Plunging backs, rhinestone necklines, and loads of organza can be as confusing as choosing a wedding dress!

110 - Baby Chicks - It may be time to let out the waist in the salsa skirt! One of the Salsa Queens thinks she's "preggo" but with talk of a baby chick, tension mounts between the cast.

111 - Mucho Dinero! When the audition season shuts down and there is less work in entertainment, it might be time for some of our cast to consider a "real job." This puts a damper on the nightlife and fun as making dinero becomes job number one.

112 - If You Can't Stand The Heat... - Get off the dance floor! The season ends with a ballroom championship showdown! But with one of the Chicks away on a TV shoot, will the rest of the cast reign supreme or will the heat on the floor burn them up?!

¡Chicks & Salsa! Dances towards . . . MIAMI, NEW YORK, SAN ANTONIO & Chicago!
